

Your about to jump out of a perfectly good aeroplane!! How do you feel about that!!

After days of the UK's usual grey drizzle filled days we decided to cheer ourselves up with a session at the local. We arrived home much later a bit squiffy and after the usual toast frenzy settled down to watch a late night re-run of Point break (think of it what you will).

In our drunken state some of the Surf punx crew decided what was needed was a bit of winter sun and a big adrenaline rush.

So inspired by the film they decided to give the credit cards another hammering and set off for empuria brava Spain to get a quick fix adrenaline rush and five days of freefall plus some much needed winter sun all to coincide just before our Portugal trip.

The Surf Punx freefall display team can be hired for your event for the price of a few beers and a chicken in a basket meal.....

Coming soon Surf Punx tribute to the late Evel Knievel where we will be trying to recreate his famous or infamous jump at Wembley stadium over 13 London Buses...!!!!!!!
